NRPA Proctor Guidelines

Potential Proctors

In order to become an approved proctor of the AFO Exam, the test administrator must currently be in one of the following professions.

- Public Librarian (offering supervised proctoring services)
- University Professor/ or Librarian
- Professional Testing Center Staff
- Professional Development Center Staff
- Military Base Professional Development Center Staff
- NRPA or State Affiliate Staff
- AFO Instructors

Supervisors, Co-Workers, Relatives or individuals not associated with a professional development career cannot proctor the AFO Exam without direct approval from NRPA certification staff.

Proctor Fees and Site Requirements

NRPA allows proctor sites to charge fees for administering the AFO exam. Proctors are not required to charge to proctor AFO exams. AFO Candidates are responsible for the proctoring exam fees.

Proctoring site requirements are crucial. AFO Candidates must be provided with the following test conditions when sitting for the AFO Exam.

- Comfortable room temperature
- Adequate lighting
- Adequate space. NRPA requires 3 feet between test candidates.
- Quiet environment. Candidates should be seated away from heavy traffic areas
- Facility must be ADA accessible.
