

National Recreation and Park Association

Network Leadership Program 2013 Application Form

NRPA Networks need individuals that will provide leadership and engage Network members. We all understand the critical nature of bringing people together and building a sense of community. Being a Network Leader is an opportunity for you to make a difference in your Network and in NRPA.

As a Network Leader, it is your responsibility to engage your Network to:

- Pose, monitor and answer questions posed in the online networking site for your Network
- Contribute documents to the NRPA Knowledge Center
- Help generate article topics or write articles for NRPA's Parks & Recreation magazine
- Identify topics for NRPA webinars and/or online chat sessions
- Identify and offer input on research topics
- Identify and offer input on field trends

Eligibility Requirements:

- Current NRPA membership

Required Materials

- Briefly answer the questions provided below
- Resume which includes your educational history and career summary including a complete description of your current position, responsibilities, and volunteer activities.
